Dorm Registration

Purdue is working on finalizing all the information we need to reserve our dorm rooms. There will soon be a Purdue website where participants can register the dorm room of their choice. There will be options for both single and double rooms. Parking is included with your dorm rental. We will update juggle.org and send out a notice by email when we have new information on dorm and meal registration.

Stage Championships

Step up your game this year and compete with some of the best jugglers in the world. May 15th is the registration deadline for the IJA Stage Championships. See more information on page 5 or at <http://www.juggle.org/ija/championships/stage-championship-rules-2014/>

Nominations for the IJA Board, by Don Lewis

The deadline to submit nominations is coming up fast and so far you have ALL ignored it !

Unless you collectively want to go back to the model of paid positions, higher fees, and poor oversight, we need at least four volunteers to step up and take a turn on the Board.

You sign up for a two year stint. There is a conference call per month and ongoing email conversations to ensure everyone knows what needs to be done. Hard things like accounting and bookkeeping are done by paid professionals for you.

The IJA needs your support as well as your membership fee. Look around and nominate someone you trust. And while you are looking around, look in the mirror as well. Help keep the dream alive!

So, what happens if there are no nominations? We still have to hold an election at the festival even if there are no candidates. People can write in choices on their ballot. The majority of write-in candidates are usually not serious choices. But, in this case a joke could go badly awry as only a couple of votes might be enough to elect someone. This year four out of seven positions are up for grabs so we could wind up with a majority of new board members whose intentions are completely unknown.

Democracy only works if YOU participate.

Get serious! Get those nominations in and support your candidates.

New Addition to the Performer Lineup, by Cody Fiereck

As the festival approaches we are continuing to round off our stage shows. This month, we are ecstatic to announce that Salih Mahammed will be joining us this year. Salih is a circus performer from Ethiopia, with 15 years of experience. He started performing internationally in 2007 with the Mother Africa circus tour. He is now based in Baltimore, performing with Cirque Dreams.

He is a solo and duo ball bounce juggler, performing amazing tricks with up to 8 balls. On top of his bounce act he specializes in group and solo club juggling, shape spinning (Square and Cube), acrobatics, human pyramid, unicycle and dance! The IJA is excited to be welcoming Salih to the Cascade of Stars line-up!

Purdue has assured us that they will have more than enough rooms available to accommodate the IJA.

Special Workshops: There will be three Special Workshops available to fest attendees this year. Each special workshop costs $60 (in addition to normal fest registration fees) and will meet on two days for a total of four hours. All special workshops will be scheduled during different time slots, so attendees wanting to commit a lot of time to learning and training can register for one, two or all three.

Stage Volunteers Needed for Championships, by Viveca Gardiner

The IJA 2014 Stage Championships team is looking for a few festival attendees to help out backstage on Wednesday and Thursday nights. If you have stage management experience, we especially want to hear from you! Please contact Viveca Gardiner at championships@juggle.org to volunteer or find out more.

Amazon donates to the IJA when you buy through Amazon Smile

The IJA is registered as a charitable organization with the Amazon Smile program. That means that you can select the IJA to benefit from a small fraction of what you would spend anyway at Amazon. You get the same low prices and service that you have come to expect at Amazon. It is pretty simple. You go to smile.amazon.com and select the IJA as your chosen charity. Not all purchases are eligible, but many are. We'll see at the end of the year how much benefit there is, but really, everything helps. It is an interesting way to help the IJA by registering your preference at Amazon.

IJA Board Nominations Deadline Approaching Soon, by Martin Frost

Want to help steer the IJA? Got some good ideas for what the IJA should (or should not!) do? Run for the IJA Board, or if you think you know someone who would be a good Board member, talk to them about running.

The current volunteer directors on the IJA Board are working hard to keep the IJA alive and vibrant. Each year the IJA needs new volunteers to join the Board and help decide the directions the IJA will go. About half the Board seats are up for election each summer for a two-year term. You help out for two years and then you can relax and let someone else step up if you want to. Or, you could offer to run again. The best person to nominate may be staring at you in the mirror. Serving on the Board can be very rewarding. Submit a nomination to nominations@juggle.org by the May 15th deadline. Email that same address if you have any questions about serving on the Board. For more details, see: www.juggle.org/business/nominations.

Help promote the IJA and build on a legacy of success. Get on Board!

3rd Mexico IJA Regional Competition, by Erin Stephens

The IJA is excited to announce that the Periplo International Circus Festival in Guadalajara, Mexico, will once again be hosting the Mexico IJA Regional Competition (IRC) on June 27th.

This will be the third time the competition will be held in Mexico, and we look forward to seeing the talent that shows up to compete. Full video coverage of the IRC finals will be available exclusively to IJA members through eJuggle!

Over the past four years, the IRC has helped to inspire up and coming jugglers in the Mexico scene. The winner of the 2013 IRC, Niño Torres, had entered the 2011 IRC but had not made it through the Prelims. He says this situation motivated him to practice harder and improve, in order to be able to get into the finals in 2013. Not only did he make it into the finals, but he won 1st place in the competition!

This year, the deadline to register and submit a prelim video for the IRC is May 27th. The finalists will be announced shortly thereafter. Full rules and information are available at: <http://www.elperiplo.com/#lirc/clry>.

Youth Juggling Academy Badges, by Ellen Winter

The IJA Youth Juggling Academy (formerly known as the IJA Youth Education Program or "YEP") is launching an exciting new achievement recognition program! This program is not just for kids; adult IJA members can earn achievement badges, too.

Rather than a one-size-fits-all leveling system, the Youth Juggling Academy (YJA) achievement program is loosely patterned after the badges used by the Boy Scouts/Girl Scouts of America. This a la carte model is ideal for accommodating children of all ages and juggling interests, and can be used simultaneously with other achievement systems that youth juggling instructors already have in place.

Youth Juggling Academy (YJA) members 18-years-old and under will receive the badges free of cost. As added incentive, they will be given one entry into a bimonthly giveaway of juggling props, dvds, books, and T-shirts for each button that they earn. Adults can contribute to the YJA by earning achievements and giving a minimum donation of $2 per badge. Each achievement earned by an adult will pay for the materials to provide 10 badges to kids free of charge.

In addition to its motivational benefits, we believe this program has the potential to:

- promote interest in juggling among non-juggling youth through wearable achievements
- boost youth membership in the IJA
- create a stronger common identity among the Youth Juggling Academy's various pods, and
- foster increased communication among the youth juggling community as a whole.

IJA member and performer Louis Skaradek has generously donated his time over the past several months to design the badges (see photo). "Graphic design and juggling have been a part of my life since high school. After a few years working in Baltimore at a couple different art departments, I took to the road – traveling the country with 'The London Broil Show.' When I was asked to create these badges for the Youth Juggling Academy I thought it was a perfect fit – I am an Eagle Scout, juggler, and designer," says Skaradek.

New badges will be released periodically. The program's initial release will include badges for juggling 3-7 balls, clubs, rings, and mixed props (50 catches per button for 3-5 objects, with smaller goals required for 6 and 7 objects). The first round of badges will also include a "teacher" button for teaching others to juggle and a "Juggler" button for qualifying 3 balls, thus allowing anyone who wants to participate in the program to get started right away. "YJA Sponsor" badges will be available for those wishing to donate funding to the YJA (more info on this TBA).

Aiming to encourage children's interest in all facets of juggling, achievement categories will include: technical ability, creativity, performance, alternative props, teaching juggling to others, community service, festival attendance and interaction with the greater juggling community, making juggling props, and knowledge of juggling history, among others.

To give children greater ownership of the program, the YJA will eventually invite kids to submit proposals for new achievements. If a child's achievement is accepted, it will become available for all IJA members to earn. He/she will receive a special badge for designing an achievement and be publicly recognized if he/she chooses and receives parental permission.

The Youth Juggling Academy has already received generous donations for the bimonthly giveaway from a number of prop vendors and performers :

- Flying Clipper donated 23 Tossaball juggling balls.
- Higgins Brothers donated: a diabolo, a set of Cirque du Soleil balls, 3 rings, a "Complete Juggling Kit", and a spinning plate.
- Brontosaurus Balls donated several sets of Brontosaurus juggling balls.
- Institute of Jugglology donated 7 Northwest Arkansas Juggling Festival T-shirts, in multiple sizes and designs.
- Peter Irish and Ambree Zuba donated several sets of practice poi.
- Forty Fingers and a Missing Tooth donated several Asheville Juggling Festival T-shirts.
- Niels Duinker donated 12 copies of his book, "Catching Greatness: A guide to Thriving in a World Plagued by Gravity," and 8 copies of his dvd, "Performance Highlights and Learn to Juggle DVD." Some of Niels' books and videos will be prizes for the bimonthly giveaway, and some will be sent to YJA pods.

Montreal Juggling Festival - May 2 - 4, 2014, by Don Lewis

The Montreal festival in nearby St. Eustache is shaping up to be a great festival.

There is no shortage of talented jugglers in the area and interest is quickly building in the show. Out-of-town acts are also welcome.

Marie France Gravel will be our MC. Tony Duncan is bringing his unique style to the stage as a featured performer. There is a pretty full lineup of artists from Montreal and Quebec City as well. It is going to be a great show.

Check with Jean Demarais for more information about performing in the show.

Les Jongleurs Associés du Québec will be joined by local hacky sack enthusiasts and slackliners. There may even be some exciting highline action.

The Multisport Complex in St. Eustache is huge. Even part of it will be more space than we've ever had. It is similar in size to the giant space that the New York festival used at the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn. The ceiling is impressively high at 55 feet. On-site indoor camping will be available in a separate room, with lots of space to set up tents on a soft surface. A snack bar will be available, run by the sports center.

It is easy to get to St. Eustache, which is about 30 minutes by car from Montreal. There is also regular bus service from downtown Montreal, as well as from the Laval METRO terminal. There is plenty of free parking at the sports complex.

The festival is evolving on the JAQ's Facebook page. The JAQ website also has information about the festival.

Having a Juggling Festival? List it here!

If you're organizing a juggling festival (or if you simply know of a juggling fest) and you want to advertise it in the IJA eNewsletter, just drop a note to eNewsletter editor Don Lewis enews@juggle.org. Such listings are free.

The eNewsletter generally comes out near the end of each month. Your festival can be listed for a few months, and you don't have to be an IJA affiliate to have a fest listed. Hey, jugglers want to know about juggling fests. Help them out and get more jugglers to your fest at the same time.
