2007 Guest Artists

Special Guest:

Viktor Kee

The IJA is proud to welcome Viktor Kee as the Special Guest for our 60th anniversary celebration. Universally recognized as one of the world's most creative and talented jugglers, Viktor is an international circus star who has inspired countless fans with his unique and powerful performance.

Viktor began his training at the age of six, when his older brother "smuggled" him into circus school. Juggling became Viktor's favorite circus art, and he was profoundly moved when he happened to view a video of Francis Brunn – his career path suddenly became clear. After years of intense, specialized training, he developed a truly world-class performance, combining juggling with elements of dance, drama, contortion and acrobatics to create a beautiful and stunning presentation.

Viktor has performed at some of the most respected venues in the world, including long engagements at the Moulin Rouge and the Lido de Paris. He's been honored with a silver award at the Cirque de Demain festival and a prestigious Silver Clown at the International Circus Festival in Monte-Carlo. A highlight of his career was appearing as Barbra Streisand's Special Guest at her millennium concert in Las Vegas. Recently he has enjoyed an eight-year run with Cirque du Soleil's Dralion.

Viktor will headline the big Cascade of Stars show on Friday night as well as share his knowledge of performance skills and aesthetics in the Special Workshop.

The Peapot Jugglers

Joining us from Finland are Peapot Jugglers Maksim Komaro and Ville Walo, who will perform the first half of the Cascade of Stars. We are very excited to bring the Peapots to their first appearance at an IJA festival. Innovative jugglers and talented educators, Maksim and Ville will offer several free workshops during the week.

Jerry Martin writes: "Peapot's commitment is to keep the electricity flowing, to shake us out of our creative laziness, and to honor our elders while doing so. With their rock-solid base of ethical integrity, their experimental energy, their lifelong experience juggling all manner of props, and their unfettered sense of humor, you can be certain the Peapot posse will be totally alive inside whatever new ideas they dream up."

Peter Davison

Peter is a multi-disciplinary performer working with juggling, dance and monologue. He began as a teenage street performer in the late '70s. In 1982, Peter won first place in the IJA Championships and became a founding member of the trio Airjazz. With Airjazz, he has toured internationally and appeared on numerous TV shows such as the Tonight Show with Johnny Carson. Peter has taught movement workshops at, among other places, the national circus schools of Quebec and France under the direction of Guy Caron (one of the founders of Cirque du Soleil).

Working primarily as a solo performer since 1991, he has toured his show Up in the Air nationally and was featured on Harry Anderson's CBS special The Tricks of his Trade. Peter's new one-man show, A View from the Moon, a dance/theater piece based on four famous insane artists, was produced at the California Performing Arts Festival.

Peter will share his artistic vision in a free workshop as well as in the Cascade of Stars.

Special Workshop

Yuri Pozdniakov & Viktor Kee

Legends of the past: The story goes that Nikolai Kiss was at work in the hall where the great Enrico Rastelli practiced. After carefully observing Rastelli's training techniques, Nikolai taught them to his children. Alexander Kiss and his sister Violetta later passed on this method to many others, including Sergei Ignatov, who then personally trained Yuri Pozdniakov.

Today, Yuri continues the tradition of excellence and artistry as the master circus director of the Professional Circus School of Kiev, in the heart of the Ukraine. This year's Special Guest Viktor Kee is just one of many international circus stars who have benefited from Yuri's tutelage.

Yuri was honored as the IJA's Special Guest in 2005 and is back this year by popular demand. He will select two of his most promising students to bring to the IJA festival, giving us an exclusive look at the emerging young circus stars of this century.

IJA participants are invited to explore Yuri's techniques in a three-day special workshop (1pm-4pm, Tuesday to Thursday). He will be assisted by his selected students as well as by Viktor Kee, who will join the workshop for one hour each day. Yuri will teach the practice techniques and preparations of some of the most successful and talented jugglers in the world while Viktor will teach performance aesthetics.

Explore new tricks and drills, enhance your performance skills and gain valuable feedback from one of the top professional coaches in the world.

This workshop will meet for three days, three hours per day, and cost an additional $125. You must pre-register for participation in this workshop. Space is limited, so be sure to sign up early! For more information email festival2007@juggle.org.

Shows

Ice Cream Social & Welcome Show

Join us after dinner Tuesday night for an old fashioned ice cream social! Afterwards we'll walk over to the theater together to kick off the week's entertainment schedule. Our hosts for the evening will be the native Carolinian comedy/juggling team the Fettucini Brothers. Alfredo and Alfresco, AKA Steve Langley and Mike Heidman, will start our 60th anniversary celebration in a show featuring great acts from within the IJA family. For more information on performing, email John Satriano at festival2007@juggle.org.

Youth Showcase

This non-competitive event on Wednesday evening will feature young performers up to age 18. Beginners and experienced jugglers are welcome. This is a great chance to try the stage for the first time. For more information on performing, email producer David Groth at youthshowcase@juggle.org. Stage time will be limited so sign up early!

Planting the Juggling Seed

On Thursday morning the gym will fill with hundreds of local schoolchildren. This will be a wonderful opportunity to introduce the magic of the manipulative arts on the stage of Planting the Juggling Seed. After the show the kids will get a juggling lesson and an opportunity to speak with professional jugglers. Interested in performing? Contact organizers Kim Laird and Rob Barowski at jugglingseed@juggle.org.

Renegade Shows

2007 marks the 21st year since the birth of our popular late night shows, which means that Renegade itself is now of drinking age! Birthday celebrations will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights after the evening shows let out. Produced by Renegade Juggling, these shows provide a more relaxed atmosphere for performers to try out their newest material and wildest stunts. Refreshing adult beverages and pub food will be available. Performer signups will be at the festival.

Cascade of Stars

Friday night brings the show you've been waiting for all week, a spectacular convergence of international performers and juggling superstars! To cap our week's entertainment, Viktor Kee, The Peapot Jugglers, Peter Davison, and more invited guests to come will create a world-class exhibition worthy of our 60th anniversary celebration. On this night, the Stevens Center will become the center of the juggling universe...we hope you are there! We expect this show to sell out so purchase your extra tickets early.

Competitions

IJA Championships

This event attracts jugglers from around the world, presenting their very best work in hopes of capturing an IJA gold medal. An intense competition that has presented some fantastic surprises, this show will keep you on the edge of your seat! The Juniors Championships are on Wednesday, July 18, the Individuals and Teams Championships on Thursday, July 19. Almost $4000 in cash prizes plus medals and trophies will go home with the 2007 champions! See www.juggle.org/championships for the rules. See also the two special notes below. Entry fee: $10 per event. Contact Championships Director Craig Barnes at championships@juggle.org.

Special Note – Routines must be submitted on DVD: To enter the Championships, you must submit a DVD of your act (actual costume, music and routine) when you sign up for the competition at the festival on Monday. The video on DVD must be from a single continuous shot of your act, with no editing at all. The top acts will be selected for the stage finals in each category.

Special Note – Use of copyright music now restricted in IJA Championships and Individual Prop Competition:

Competitors may use copyright, royalty free or public domain recordings. Should a competitor elect to use a copyright recording, they must provide written evidence that they have obtained performance and synchronization rights from the owner of the copyright to use that recording in IJA competitions and videos.

Individual Prop Competition

The Individual Prop Competition will be held on Thursday afternoon. Look for the best in 3 balls, 3 clubs, 1 diabolo, 1 devil stick, 3 cigar boxes and (new this year) 3 rings. Routines should be no longer than 2 minutes and choreographed to music (see note above). Cash prizes totaling $1200 will be awarded. Entry fee: $10 per event. For more information, contact organizer Dan Holzman at propcomp@juggle.org.

Extreme Juggling

What is Extreme Juggling? It's not stage, circus or birthday party juggling. You don't even have to have your tricks mastered. All that matters is the biggest, baddest, most extreme juggling tricks you've ever seen. If you can rock a trick every time, it's probably TOO EASY!

Watch the best jugglers in the world pull off huge tricks and gnarly moves or crash and burn. This is all about radical, cutting edge tricks that push the limits of creativity and possibility...and all you gotta do is pull your trick off ONCE (within the time limit, or course). Look for this competition on Friday afternoon. For more info visit www.xjuggling.com or contact organizer Jack Kalvan at extreme@juggle.org.

Joggling Championships

Joggling is simply juggling while jogging or, in this case, sprinting! This year's event is scheduled at 9am on Tuesday. Entry Fee: $10. For more information, contact Joggling Director Bill Giduz at joggling@juggle.org.

Numbers Championships

The IJA Numbers Championships were established to provide a forum for competitors to challenge each other, past champions and the laws of physics. The purpose of these events is to accurately record who can successfully juggle, individually and in teams, the greatest numbers of balls, clubs, rings and bounced balls. Look for the Numbers Championships on Friday at noon. Cash prizes totaling $1000 will be available including a special prize for competitors breaking IJA Numbers records. Entry fee: $10 per event. See www.juggle.org/championships for rules and entry information.

60th Anniversary Party & Awards Banquet

Saturday night we'll all get together and celebrate 60 years of juggling camaraderie at the IJA Anniversary Party! Sit down for a banquet style dinner with your extended family, topped off by the IJA awards ceremonies. Afterwards we'll open up the dance floor, unleash the D.J. and party the night away!

Being There

Workshops

The festival will be packed with dozens of one-hour workshops each day from Tuesday morning to Saturday afternoon. Featuring a wide range of props, skill levels and styles, all workshops are free and open to festival registrants (except the Special Workshop with Yuri Pozdniakov). Interested in sharing your skills? Contact Workshop Coordinator Chuck Hawley at workshops@juggle.org.

IJA Auction

No item is too old – or too odd – for this year's annual auction. Donate an item by contacting auction@juggle.org, or just show up and bid on juggling articles, props, memorabilia and photos. Proceeds will benefit the IJA Archives Fund.

Games of the IJA

The games are always a festival favorite. Kick back in the gym and watch or, better yet, join in the fun. Questions or ideas? Contact Games Director Scott Slesnick at games@juggle.org.

Festival Headquarters

Located in the center of downtown Winston-Salem, the Benton Convention Center offers over 80,000 square feet of well lit, climate-controlled juggling space. Two large gyms will be available, affording jugglers the choice of soft carpet or smooth concrete. The facility is connected by skywalk to the Marriott and by tunnel to the Embassy Suites and is within walking distance of plenty of restaurants. Free wireless Internet is available throughout.

Theater

Originally a 1929 silent movie theater, the Stevens Center is a magnificently restored neoclassical theater located 2 blocks from the festival facility. Re-opened since 1983, the Stevens Center is the primary performance space for the school of dance and music at the North Carolina School of the Arts. Seating 1350, this fully modernized theater is the perfect showcase for our lineup of top-notch competitions and performers.
