2009 Special Guest Artists

Michael Chirrick

Michael Chirrick was literally born into a royal family of juggling, son of the legendary Lottie Brunn and nephew of the incomparable Francis Brunn. Michael continues the family legacy of amazing jugglers with his polished blend of excellent mixed-prop skills, combining balance, juggling, acrobatics, humor and technical brilliance into his performances.

Still astounding his audiences as he has done through his 40-year career, Michael has performed around the globe in all of the world's most prestigious venues, including the world's top nightclubs, cabarets, circuses and television shows. Michael spent six years performing with the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters, and he has performed by invitation at such world-class events as the International Circus Festival at Monte Carlo for Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco.

Michael's juggling reestablishes the best of vaudeville variety acts with a unique high-energy routine that can include everything from nunchaku and soccer balls to golf clubs and rings, mixing incredible juggling with balance tricks, acrobatics, ball spinning and much more.

Michael Menes

Michael Menes returns to the IJA stage for the Cascade of Stars show after an absence of too many years from our annual festival. Longtime IJA fest attendees will never forget the many stunning performances Michael has brought us over the years, most recently at the IJA's 50th Anniversary festival in Pittsburgh in 1997.

Michael has mesmerized and delighted audiences for over a generation, always with a brilliantly inventive and delicately perfected presentation. Michael's superb physical skills blend seamlessly with his technical mastery to produce an unmistakably unique style that really must be seen in person to be fully appreciated.

Florent LeStage

Fluid and lyrical in his movement, Florent LeStage is a young juggling sensation from France who mixes clubs, cane, coat and other traditional vaudeville props into a dazzling and unique performance that defies categorization. Check out his videos on YouTube, then come to Winston-Salem to see much more live and in person when he performs in the Cascade of Stars!

Greg Kennedy

Two-time IJA individual medalist and numbers champion Greg Kennedy never fails to surprise with performances that combine amazing manipulation with inventive props and staging. Greg has toured the world with his trademark act that brings together logic and creativity to create new forms of manipulation. Greg will perform his newest astonishments combining physics and innovative techniques in the Cascade of Stars show.

Team RenegadesignLab (Team RdL)

Americans Jay Gilligan and Wes Peden team up with Erik Åberg and Patrik Elmnert from Sweden as Team RdL. Witness the debut of eye-popping new team and individual performances featuring some really innovative new tricks, new combinations and even some new props! Catch their tantalizing video trailer on the IJA web site now, and then be in Winston-Salem for their performances, workshops, and even late-night spots on the Renegade stage!

Special Workshop: Team RdL

*Four incredible instructors.
One phenomenal workshop.*

Be one of the few who will be present for an amazing three-day workshop led by all four members of Team RdL: Jay Gilligan, Wes Peden, Erik Åberg and Patrik Elmnert. They're coming from Sweden to the IJA Festival to teach and demonstrate some of the brilliant new work they have created with both familiar traditional props and new ones. Catch the Team RdL video trailer on the IJA Web site for a taste of some of the new tricks and innovations which they will be sharing in the workshop. Learn about the findings of the "Manipulation Research Laboratory" projects including the 12 Rules of Manipulation, composition for juggling (juggling choreography, not dance or body movement but how to build juggling sequences), and technique invention (how to create never-done-before tricks).

This special workshop will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 1pm-4pm each day and requires a separate $150 fee. See the A La Carte section on the last page of the attached registration form to sign up. Pre-registration is required, and space is limited, so sign up early!

Additional featured artists:

Peter Irish Sean Blue
Dan Bennett Ivan Pecel

Welcome Show

Kick off your week of evening entertainment with the Welcome Show Tuesday at 8pm in the beautiful Stevens Center Theater. Show director Dan Holzman will assemble a mixture of talent from within the IJA as well as some of the guest artists for the week, along with a few surprise acts for good measure. For information on performing, contact Mike Sullivan at festival2009@juggle.org.

Youth Showcase

This non-competitive stage show Wednesday at 7pm (prior to the Juniors Championships) will feature young performers up to age 18. Beginners and experienced jugglers are welcome. For information on being in the Showcase, contact producer Pam Hamilton at youthshowcase@juggle.org. Stage time is limited, so sign up early!

Club Renegade

It wouldn't be an IJA festival without the late-night cavalcade of unpredictability, astounding 'not-ready-for-prime-time' acts, and simply indescribable comedy and variety known as Club Renegade. Beginning around 11pm on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, Club Renegade will be held directly across the street from the Benton Convention Center in the Millennium Center Theater, an ideal venue for the anything-goes Renegade shows, complete with full bar for those thirsty jugglers in the audience. Performer sign-ups will be at the festival.

Planting the Juggling Seed

On Thursday at 1pm the gym will fill with hundreds of local schoolchildren. This will be a wonderful opportunity to introduce the magic of the manipulative arts on the stage of Planting the Juggling Seed. After the show the kids will get a juggling lesson and an opportunity to speak with professional jugglers. Interested in performing? Contact organizers Kim Laird and Rob Barowski at jugglingseed@juggle.org.

Cascade of Stars

The crescendo of the week's entertainment happens Friday night at the Cascade of Stars public show, bringing together all of the special guests and featured artists from the festival along with additional top-ranked variety performers in one amazing showcase of world-class talent.

Cascade of Stars director Dan Holzman promises a night not to be missed, with spotlight performances scheduled from a long list of special guests and featured artists from across the country and around the world.

It all starts Friday at 8pm in the spectacular Stevens Center Theater, a beautiful and spacious vaudeville-era performance venue just one block from the Benton Convention Center. General admission tickets for the Cascade of Stars are included in the event package, and we expect another sell-out show as we had in 2007 thanks to the wonderful response to the festival from the local Winston-Salem community.

Order your event package today and be witness to another unforgettable Cascade of Stars!

Juggle Jam Party

Festival week wraps up with a casual, fun and freestyle evening at the Benton Convention Center Saturday from 8pm to 10:30pm. The North Main Hall will be converted into a 20,000-sq. ft. party space with a live DJ, music, lights, food and drink, and plenty of room to show off your best new trick, watch what your fellow jugglers can do, and just chill out with the coolest people around: your fellow IJA jugglers!

There will be lots of "grazing stations" with hot and cold finger foods, appetizers, desserts and entrees, plus iced tea, coffee and water, all included with your admission ticket, and there will be cash bars selling beer and wine to those 21 and older. There will be mini-stages set up for those who want to show off or just juggle under the spotlight, so you can watch as well as join in on more great juggling to end the week. And don't miss the presentation of some special awards, including the People's Choice award, to be announced during the party!

Event packages include the Juggle Jam.

Joggling Championships

Joggling is simply juggling while jogging or, in this case, sprinting! This year's event starts Tuesday at 9am. Entry Fee: $10. For more information, contact Joggling Director Bill Giduz at joggling@juggle.org.

IJA Championships

The best jugglers from around the world come to the IJA festival each year to present their skill and art in the IJA Championships, hoping to earn the IJA Gold Medal. Games of the IJA

The games are always a festival favorite. Kick back in the gym and watch or, better yet, join in the fun on Saturday. Questions or ideas? Send email to games@juggle.org.

Workshops

IJA festival workshops are worth the price of an event package for anyone interested in learning directly from the experts. Here you'll learn first-hand from some of the most amazing and inventive people in the world: your fellow jugglers! You'll be able to preview the full workshop schedule on the IJA web site at <http://www.juggle.org/festival> before you leave home for Winston-Salem.

The festival workshop schedule runs Tuesday through Saturday, from mid-morning until 5pm each day and 3pm on Saturday. All workshop meeting rooms are located in the Benton Convention Center, making it easy to find and attend all the workshops on your "must-do" list. Updated workshop schedules will be posted every morning at the IJA Workshops table in the main gym.

If you'd like to teach a workshop, please contact Workshop Coordinator Kevin Axtell at workshops@juggle.org.

Downtown Winston-Salem

Downtown Winston-Salem and the central Twin City Quarter district, where all of the IJA festival events are being held, is a safe, clean, vibrant and very walkable area. There are more than 50 restaurants and pubs, a farmer's market, a large arts and shops district along Trade Street, and many conveniences for your visit including a pharmacy, a new 24-hour fitness club, and much more.

Convention Center

The Benton Convention Center will be the hub of festival activity. With nearly 100,000-sq. ft. of modern, well-lit, climate-controlled space, the Convention Center gives us plenty of room, all under one roof, to spread out and juggle, conduct workshops, party, shop for cool juggling gear, and more!

Located at the northwest corner of Fifth and Cherry in downtown Winston-Salem, the Convention Center is adjacent to our two headquarters hotels and near dozens of shops, excellent restaurants and pubs along Trade Street (one block east) and Fourth Street (one block south). Plus, it's just one block from both the Stevens Center Theater (evening shows) and the Millennium Center Theater (Club Renegade).

Stevens Center Theater

Having welcomed audiences in Winston-Salem since 1929, the beautiful, fully-restored Stevens Center Theater of the University of North Carolina School of the Arts will be the venue for four nights of IJA shows and championships.

This spacious and modernized theater seats 850 in comfortable upholstered seats on the lower level alone, with barrier-free sightlines from every seat. The theater is located at the northwest corner of Fourth Street and Marshall Street, just one block from the Convention Center and 1.5 blocks from either headquarters hotel.

Headquarters Hotels

Two modern, luxurious hotels serve as the headquarters hotels for the 2009 festival, and both are right next to the Convention Center and within a 5-minute walk of dozens of restaurants, pubs and coffee shops in the downtown Twin City Quarter district.

When you stay at the Marriott or the Embassy Suites, you'll be able to take in all the festival events within a short walk from your hotel room door. The Embassy Suites is connected to the Convention Center via an underground walkway and to the Marriott via a second-floor skywalk.

Getting to Winston-Salem

Winston-Salem is in the lush, rolling mountains of north central North Carolina, within a day's drive of most of the eastern, southern and midwestern United States.

The airport serving the city is in Greensboro/High Point, NC (airport code GSO), about 23 miles east of downtown. GSO offers over 50 daily regional jet flights to and from most eastern hub airports from all six major US airlines, offering easy connections to the world. Visit <http://flyfrompti.com> for complete airport information and links to airlines serving GSO.

Airport Shuttle

The IJA has negotiated a greatly reduced airport shuttle for jugglers flying into GSO who arrive on Monday or Tuesday, July 13 or 14, or who depart on Sunday, July 19. The shuttle will run between GSO and downtown Winston-Salem every 75 minutes: 10am–8pm on Monday; 10am–4pm on Tuesday; and to the airport 7am–2pm on Sunday.

IJA fest attendees may purchase shuttle tickets for just $15 each way per person (gratuity not included), saving over 45%.

Plan your flights to arrive and depart within the hours noted above, reserve your shuttle seat on the festival registration form, and be sure to supply a valid email address with your registration. The IJA will email you a confirmation code for your ride and put you in touch with the shuttle company to arrange your shuttles. Discounted shuttle rides are only available with advance fest registration, so register today!

Volunteers Needed

The IJA's annual festival is a mammoth undertaking for our small, all-volunteer organization, and making the week a success depends on dozens of volunteers to help out by donating their time and effort during the week. If you can offer to help a little or a lot, from one hour to several, please volunteer. You'll help make the festival fun for everyone, and your effort will be valued and recognized by your fellow jugglers.

Volunteers are needed for a wide range of positions including gym door checkers, IJA ambassadors, ticket assistants, IJA table staff, registration assistants, T-shirt and video sales, backstage show assistants, and election tellers. Those with a car at the fest are needed as VIP airport chauffeurs and downtown errand runners. If you can pitch in, even for just a couple of hours during the week, please see <http://www.juggle.org/vols> and/or email IJA Festival Volunteer Coordinator Dina Sharnhorst at festvolunteers@juggle.org.
