PICTURES OF PEOPLE

If you have been on stage at any convention since 2006, IJA photographer Emory Kimbrough probably has a photo of you. Chase him down with your thumb drive, or give him your e-mail address for a copy. This year's competitors and performers, please leave your e-mail or contact Emory at inventivejester@gmail.com to get your photos after the convention.

Emory is the tall, nerdy, middle-aged balding guy constantly dragging camera gear around. (His description, not mine!)

CIRCUS DREAMS FOR SALE

If you missed the movie screening Tuesday night, or if you enjoyed it and want to watch it again, pick up a copy of the Circus Dreams documentary. DVDs are available for sale at the registration table.

PICK YOU UP

The Atlanta Jugglers Association invites you to drop by its table any time you need a pick-me-up. They're serving yerba mate, a traditional South American tea-like herbal stimulant. Enjoy!

GOT IDEAS?

The Board welcomes your input. Submit your ideas on how to improve the IJA to the suggestion box at the front desk or email board@juggle.org.

YOU BE THE JUDGE

If you would like to know how you would have ranked last night's competitors, here's a handy dandy judging sheet you can use.

Assign each candidate a score of 0-5 (decimals to one place are permitted), multiply each score by the appropriate factor, and sum the totals.

Category	Your Score (0-5)	Multiplication Factor	Score	Total Possible Points
Execution		4		20
Entertainment Level		4		20
Degree of Difficulty		3		15
Theatrical Framing		3		15
Creativity		3		15
Element of Risk		2		10
Stage Presence		1		5
Total		20		100

Feel free to bring this to championships tonight. You may surprise yourself.

The complete championship rules are on Juggle.org.

Yesterday's answer is almost the same as the answer to this new question: what do R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Wachovia Bank and Trust, Texas Pete hot sauce, and Krispy Kreme donuts have in common?
