

WINSTON-SALEM NEWS

SATURDAY

ENDURANCE RESULTS

The kudos, bragging rights, and cash prizes go to:

- Fewest throws with three objects: Andrew Ruiz
- Club-passing endurance (eight clubs or more): Florian & Michael Canaval
- 7-ball endurance: Doug Sayers
- One-devil stick propeller endurance: Dylan Waickman
- 5-ring endurance: Doug Sayers
- Cigar box takeout speed race: Adam Kuchler
- Five-club endurance: Daniel Ledel
- 1-diabolo infinite suicide endurance: Ted Joblin
- 5-ball endurance: Jack Denger

DJ TONIGHT!

Tonight from 8pm till midnight, come to the "Renegade room" for a par-tay! We'll have a DJ, and a cash bar until 12. Bring glow props if you want to rave it up, or leave your toys and come dance the night away.

PEOPLE'S CHOICE

Voting stays open till 2pm, and the winner will be announced immediately after the games.

FUN GAMES TODAY

Day two is all about fun. Beginning at 1pm today in the main hall, the fun games will be held in the following order. Each new game will begin immediately after the end of the previous game.

1. 3-ball Simon Says
2. Club-balance endurance
3. 3-club Simon Says
4. Quarters juggling
5. 2-diabolo combat
6. Huggling endurance (by popular request!)
7. 3-ball blind
8. Club collect*
9. Club combat*
10. Volley club semi-finals and finals

*Run at the same time (they're going to need a lot of clubs).

BIG TOSS UP

After the games, bring your props to the main gym, where the IJA will take an awesome photo of tons of stuff in the air. We suggest ducking before it all comes down.

The average two-year-old child is half of his or her adult height.

See you in Bowling Green!