Newsy Bits...

See jugglinglab.sf.net for your own copy of a siteswap animator. (If you don't know what that is come to Greg's workshop thu.)

Tuesday's single prop competition was arousing success, with many amazing performances...big thanks to founder Dan Holzman and Master comedic emcee, Scotty Meltzer. This fast paced afternoon competition garnered the attention of near almost every juggler in the gym. As an aside, I am moved to remark on the wonderful professionalism, grace under pressure (Darn sound system!) and near-deity like comic abilities of one Scotty Meltzer. His quick wit, rancorous banter and marvelous ability in the humorous mode were enjoyed by all.

Your Daily Davenport Dazzler' is scribed daily By Dave Walbridge, and as such, any news bits you might have should be delivered to him (ask at reg.) after 9 PM.

Here's a shout out to Megan -- from your best friend Alyssa, CONGRATS ON LEARNING HOW TO PASS!!!!

Tonight's shows are held in the Capital Theatre* 4 blocks down on third street.
