CELEBRATE THE JOY: BENEFIT SHOW TONIGHT

Tickets Still Available

Kick off the week with a special show tonight at Presentation Hall. This year's first-ever public benefit show will donate its proceeds to the Boys & Girls Club of Rochester.

See a great lineup of performers to start off your festival week at tonight's show, including Kevin Axtell, Brandi Slater Axtell, Bill Barr, Rachel Leshikar, Jacob Weiss, Michael Karas, Ted Joblin, Erin Stephens, Steven Weven, Doug Sayers, and more!

Tickets are $10. They'll go on sale at 6pm, doors open about 6:30, and the show starts at 7pm.

FIRE JUGGLING TONIGHT

Bring your fire or glow props, and get your flame on. Tonight and tomorrow around dusk, join the fire juggling jam in the North Patio area just outside the gym.

The Rochester Fire Department will be on hand to keep everyone safe. Fuel and douse cloths will be provided, thanks to generous funding by the iiWii Fun Fund.

JOGGLING TOMORROW: REGISTER TODAY

2011 Juggling Championships Director Len Ferman urges everyone to sign up today before 5pm to compete tomorrow in the IJA juggling competitions. Register at the juggling table in the gym. It's $10 per person, which allows you to compete in as many events as you wish.

This year's events will be conducted with an automatic timing system; to ensure smooth operation during the meet, the organizers need to input all the entries in advance.

Jugglers under 18 need a legal guardian to sign the registration form/liability waiver, even if they are attending the festival alone. Non-attending parents can download the forms at juggle.org/festival/juggling/ and email them to Len at leonard.ferman@bankofamerica.com.

YOUR ITEM HERE

To contribute an item or post an announcement in this newsletter, email Viveca@JuggleNYC.com or leave a note for Viveca at the Festival Registration Desk.

JUGGLE THE GAUNTLET

Wondering what's up with the construction site in the far side of the gym? The Gauntlet is a juggling obstacle course open to all festival participants. Juggle three balls as you walk, slide, and jump under, over, around, and through a series of obstacles.

The brainchild of Slammin' Andy Peterson, the Gauntlet was constructed by Andy, Mark Hayward, and John "Crash" Jessmon and made possible through the iiWii Fun Fund and the generous hospitality of Penny and Tom Tesarek.

Play hard, and play safe!

GET ONLINE

Wi-Fi Internet is fast and free for jugglers here in the Mayo Civic Center, but you do have to log in:

Connect your device to the network
"MCC_Public_WiFi"

Launch your Web browser

Go to mayociviccenter.com

When prompted, enter username
erangn and password 1473

If mayociviccenter.com doesn't prompt you to enter the appropriate information (it didn't for me; might be a Mac thing), try going to hotmail.com. You won't be able to get on, but it should bounce you to the right log-in page.

BEST BREAKFAST BETS

Finding affordable, convenient spots for breakfast isn't an issue in Rochester. The following establishments are all within an easy walk of the two IJA hotels. They're all open for breakfast and welcome us jugglers:

- Bravo Espresso (2nd floor of the U-Square—cheapest coffee in the downtown area!)
- Bruegger's Bagels (in the Marriott subway)
- Caribou Coffee (in the Marriott subway)
- Chico's Burritos (in Marriott subway—has breakfast burritos)
- Daube's Down Under (in the Marriott subway)
- Grand Grill (in the Kahler Grand Hotel)
- Jaspers (on Historic 3rd St. SW)
- Mac's Restaurant (by the fountain in the Peace Plaza)
- Pannekoeken (on the corner of Center St. and 1st Ave. SW)
- Pescara (in the DoubleTree lobby)
- Starbucks (in Kahler lobby and in DoubleTree skyway)
- Salad Brothers (2nd floor of the U-Square—breakfast sandwiches, cinnamon rolls, muffins)
- VINO (in the Marriott lobby)

Bon appetit!
