CLUB RENEGADE!

The first of three nights of Club Renegade start tonight, about 11pm, in the Auditorium. Beer, wine, mixed drinks, and soft drinks will be on sale, and there's plenty of air-conditioned seating for everyone. If you'd like to perform in any of the Renegade shows, sign up on the Renegade clipboard at the registration desk in the gym, or catch show producer Laura Ernst.

INDY PROP COMP TODAY

From 4-6pm today catch the action across the hall from the gym in the Auditorium when the Individual Prop Competition amps up. Jugglers will attempt their best tricks with a single prop.

If you'd like to compete, sign up at the registration desk or find Michael Karas. It costs $10 to enter, but the winners take home big cash prizes.

PLANTING THE JUGGLING SEED

Join the fun today at 11:30am at the Peace Plaza stage in downtown Rochester—just a five-minute walk from the gym—to be part of the IJA's Planting the Juggling Seed show. We'll give a fun demo and offer free lessons to all the kids and grown-ups attending the huge Thursdays On First and Third street fair.

From the gym, take the Skyway to the Doubletree Hotel, continue to the Shops at University Square, and exit onto Peace Plaza near Chester's Restaurant. You'll see the Peace Plaza Stage on 1st Ave SW just past the big fountain and the Barnes and Noble bookstore.

JUGGLING MEDALS PRESENTATION

Champions from yesterday's World Juggling Championships will be presented their medals at a ceremony today at 3pm. Visit the gym stage as Juggling Director Len Ferman presents the medals to the juggler-athletes who earned them at yesterday's meet, including the new Guinness World Record™ holders!

WORLD RECORD MONEY

Prize money is available for jugglers who break a world record during the festival. Conditions apply. See Peter Kaseman for details.

KING OF KENDAMA

Congratulations to Matt Jorgenson for sweeping the major categories at the third annual North American Kendama Association championships yesterday. Matt won speed kendama and the best-trick competition, which he won with a lunar landing and a centrifugal force combo trick.
